'71 Prom Spends An

Mr. McGinley presents flowers to King and Queen.

Many enjoyed their last JR-SR Prom in an "Evening in Paris."

The highlight of the evening came when Toni Johnson was crowned Queen and Charles Coleman King. Excitement was in the air! Gary Haddock and Linda Lowden were 1st runners-up and Dan Selton and LuAnn Oliva were 2nd runners-up of the 1971 Prom.

The Eiffel Tower brings excitement to Rosemary Kuzniak and Jeff Edmondson.

The couples danced to the delightful tunes of the “Expressions.” The dance was enjoyed by everyone. As the clock struck 12, the beautifully dressed girls and guys walked hand in hand from the once bright and enchanted festivities of an “Evening in Paris” to the dimmed lights of the streets. It was over, again for the year 1971, but the fun and memories would remain for years to come.

The honor of being chosen the 1971-72 Homecoming Queen was bestowed upon Miss Joyce Bryant sponsored by Terry Evans; Crowned by last year's Queen, Miss Jackie Jacoby. Miss Kathy Andrews sponsored by Jeff Lain, was announced First runner-up and Miss Marsha Lanter sponsored by Kenny Lewis, was announced Second runner-up.

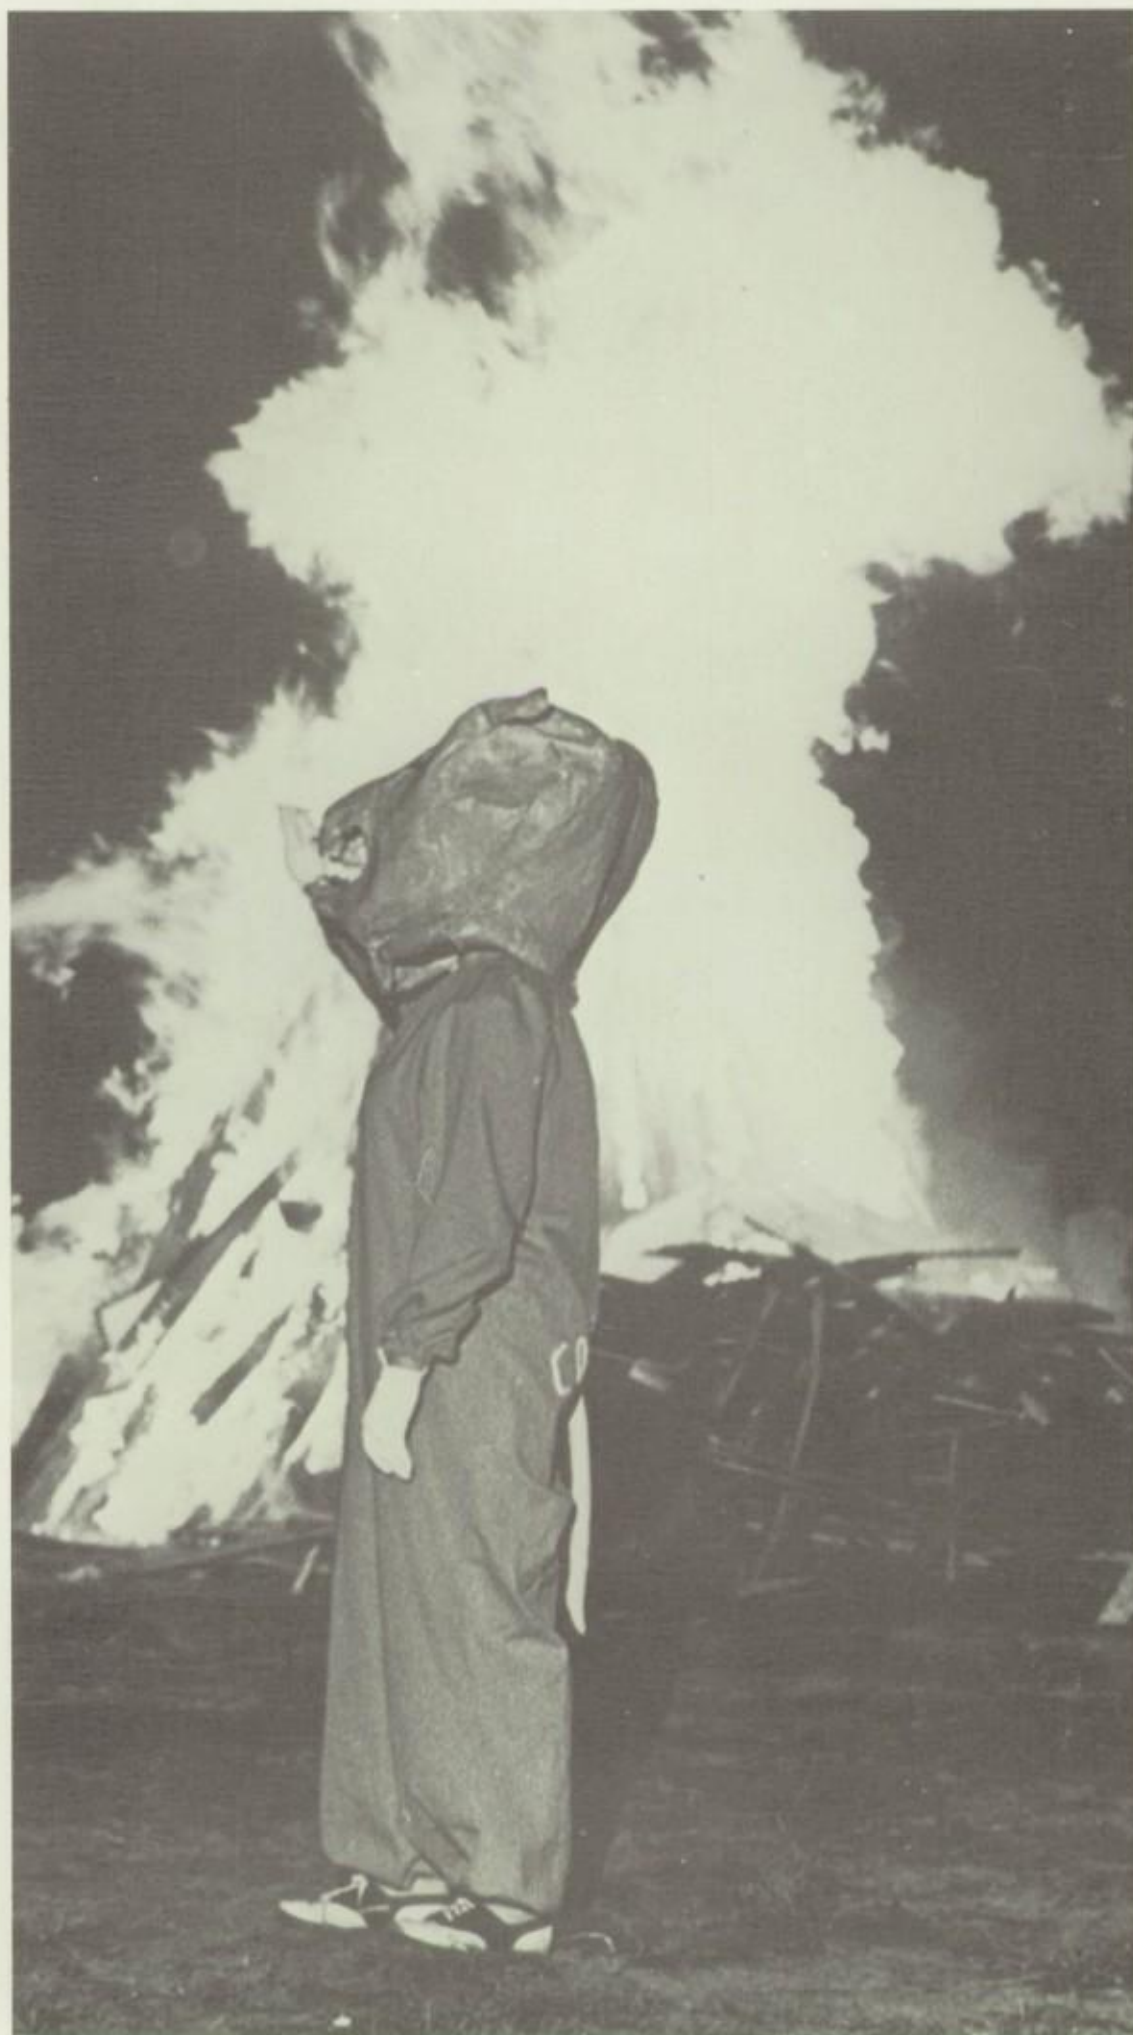

Bonfire Highlights Homecoming Week

Neither rain, nor mud, nor lack of music could get the Cougars down. The theme for Homecoming this year was "Victory for the Homeward Bound." The events began with show-your-colors day, and continued on with poster day and Grub day. On Thursday, FBLA was awarded first place for the best float. Also on Thursday, the crackling and sparkling of the bonfire, through a slight rain, added to the excitement. Friday, the drenched, decorated cars made up the annual Homecoming cavalcade. Topping off our victory over Cape Fear, the wet and happy students rushed to the cafeteria to find that the "Conquerors of Soul" had konked out.

Evening In Dogpatch

On November 20, 1971, the Reid Ross Student Council sponsored their third Annual Sadie Hawkins Dance. The evening began when the girls picked up their dates and escorted them to Shakey's. The typical supper consisted of hog jowls and possum pizza.

After eating, the students swarmed into Dogpatch, U.S.A. to the sound of Dust and the scent of hay. Marryin' Sam, Mr. Parsons, was on hand to hitch up the unwilling males to the ring-happy females. Each couple had a chance to have their chicken scratch analyzed by Mrs. Tate.

Near the end of the dance, Doug Dees and Sue Skelton were announced as Lil' Abner and Daisy Mae. The fiddlers played them a tune and everyone danced in celebration. The successful evening ended at 11:30 when the gals departed to take their fellers home.

"Waiting Patiently."

The Reid Ross Senior High School Marching Cougar Band has performed numerous times during the year. They have performed at six football games, one J.V. game and one Powder Puff game, where they showed their outstanding skills. The Band has also performed at Band Day at Wake Forest University, the Dunn Christmas Parade, the Christmas program and the Spring Assembly program.

The Band showed their talents by marching in patterns during the football halftimes. The patterns were devised and directed by Mr. Philip Stockdale, the sponsor, who succeeded in making the halftimes more colorful.

The Key Club at Reid Ross High School is a service club sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. There are two general divisions in the Key Club's yearly program, service to the community and service to the school. New members of the Key Club forge a commitment that will remain with them throughout their lives. Their membership is based on qualities of scholarship, character, ability, and leadership.

Every year the club works diligently on several projects and drives to help the school and community. The club meets monthly with other Key Clubs in joint sessions to plan activities, and each club member attends the state convention in Winston-Salem, N. C. in the spring.

Through the execution of the ambitiously demanding program, the Key Club strives to serve its school and community and to initiate personal responsibility in every member. This year the Key Club has demonstrated its pride in its school and community and serves as an inspiration to the entire student body.

The Spanish Club seeks to open the door to better understanding and greater appreciation of the Spanish language and the people who speak it. "One language creates a wall, it takes two to make a gate." The practical use of Spanish is promoted during the meetings and program topics are centered around interesting cultural aspects.

The Latin Club tries to bring its members as close as possible to the ancient and beautiful language of our fathers. The skilled military tactics of the Romans and their leisurely living gives much insight into the lives of these great rulers.

The requirements for membership are few: one must be presently taking Latin, or to have taken Latin at a previous date and be truly interested in the influence of Roman culture in the world today.

MISS MATTHEWS, Advisor

As in the past, the school newspaper, "Paw Prints," has succeeded in keeping the students of Ross on top of current news and happenings. The newspaper is published eight times a year by the diligent work of the journalism staff of Reid Ross, and is under the supervision of Miss Matthews.

The purpose of the newspaper is to inform students of activities and give recognition to worthy individuals. The newspaper consists of an "ask column," an editorial section, poetry, sports, club and front page news.

The staff does all work involved in publishing — typing, illustrating, and the layout of the pages. Much of the material is composed by the staff itself, but any student may submit work for publication.

TERRY
EVANS

Our fighting cougars began their season on a very hopeful note. Twenty members of the team were seniors and a percentage were veteran lettermen out to make the 1971 football season the finest for Ross since its opening in the 4-A conference.

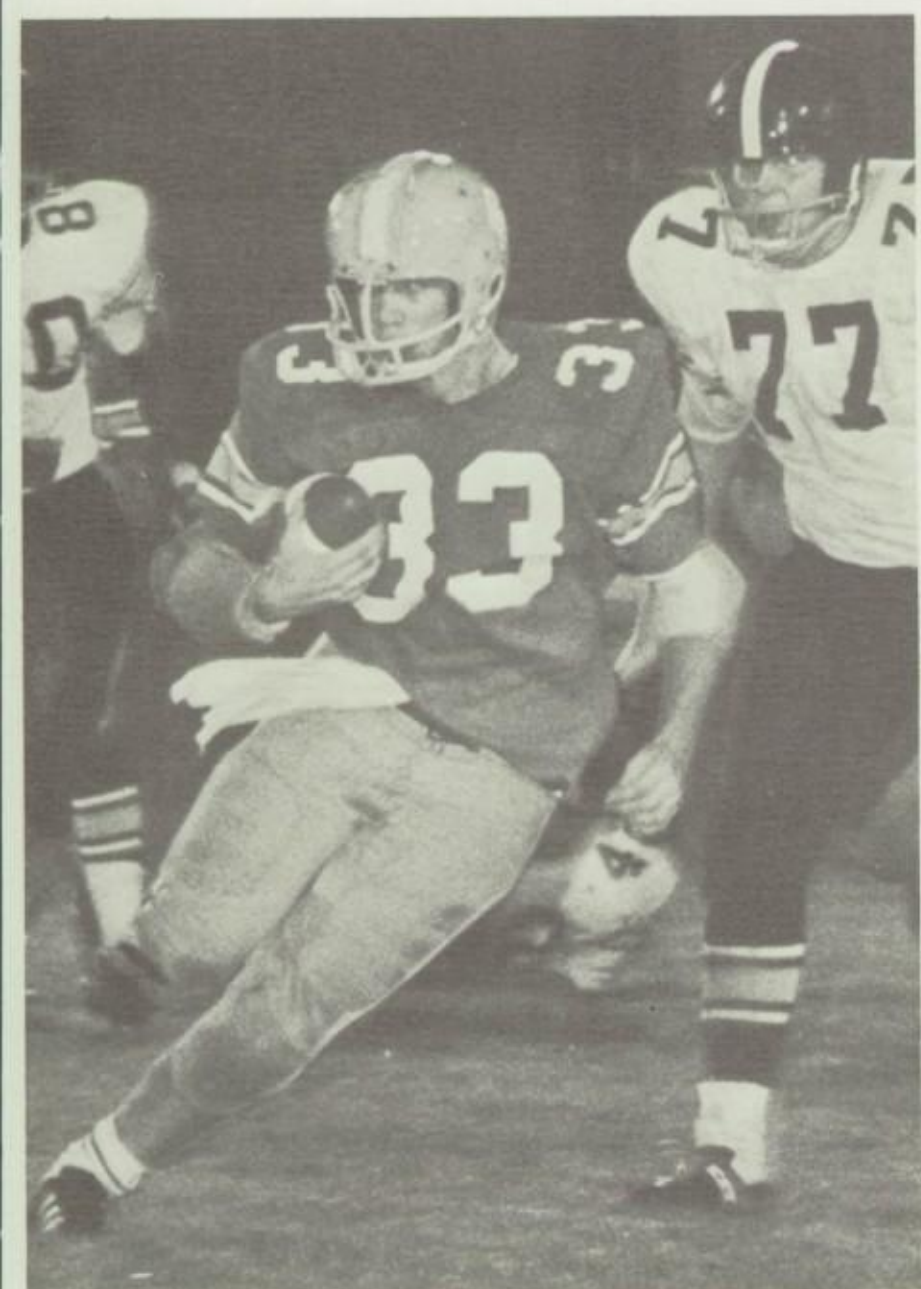

The mighty Cougars held onto their previous hopes and ended with a winning 8-2 season. In the process they netted 1,161 yards in passing due to Gerald Stone, the leading percentage passer in the county with 65 completions out of 107 attempts for a .607 figure.

Bill "Rooster" Yeager, a sure fire 6'2" senior expressed the height of his football career at Ross since his beginning in the 1969-70 season. Bill caught five TD passes for the season and made end position on the second team in the ALL-East 4-A titles.

Terry Evans, a well-rounded 6 foot, 185 pound senior caught 39 passes to score 8 TD's at end position. But his most outstanding expertise was brought out in his defensive skills at linebacker heading the defense allowing only 1,131 total yards. Evans made the first team end in the ALL-East 4-A.

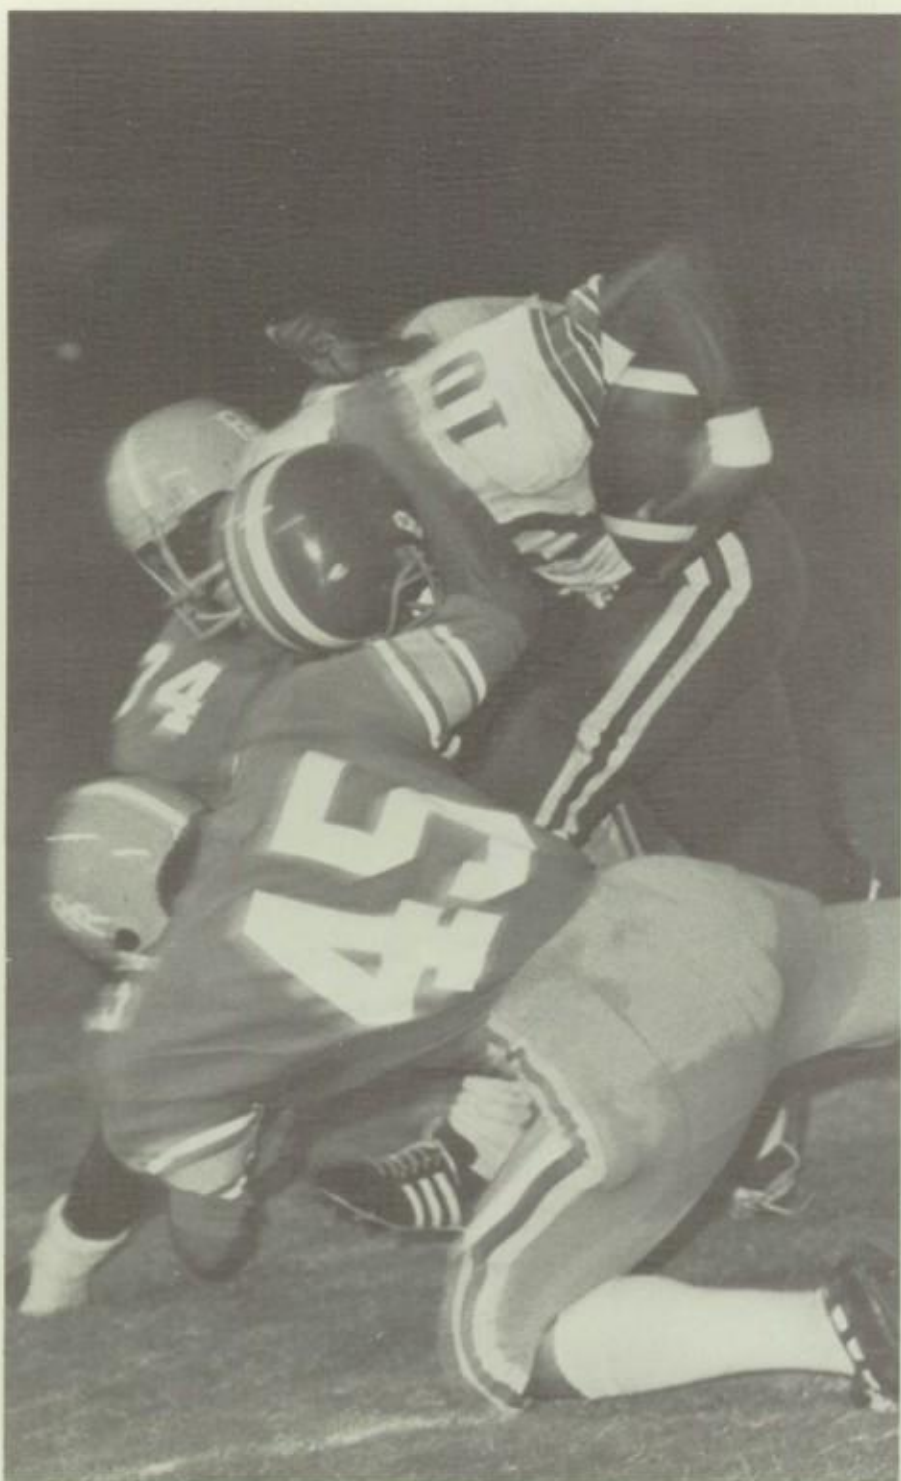

Kenny Mitchell, a three year veteran for Ross can be best summed up as a mighty mouse speedster in the backfield.

Larry Murdock, the junior fullback added to the yardage in thrusts of power against the defensive line to score several touchdowns.

Jim Selton showed marked improvements since his beginning at Ross on the JV. He contributed valuable yardage through a number of excellent carries.

Harnett and Murdock dump Jacksonville Quarterback for large loss.

Pickney drops Cape Fear runner as the Cougars celebrated with a 52-3 victory.

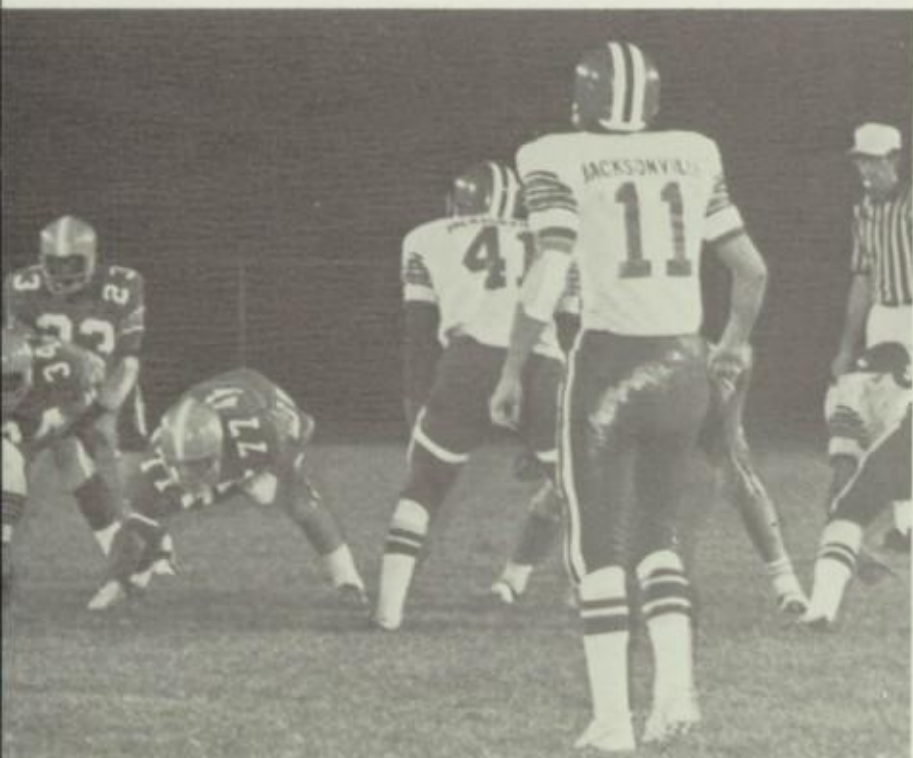

The defense could be considered the key factor to success in many of Ross's games. The impregnable line with the head-hunting linebackers and the alert backs quickly earned the name "Orange People Eaters" to which they well deserved.

Ross's offense could be easily termed as a well drilled team of "mini-giant movers." Many times, Ross lacked the size of the opponent but didn't hesitate to drive them back to give the Ross backs all the running room they might need. With plays off tackle coming over experienced and hard driving linemen, a back had only to follow his blocking.

"Orange People Eaters" close in for the tackle against the Bulls of E. E. Smith.

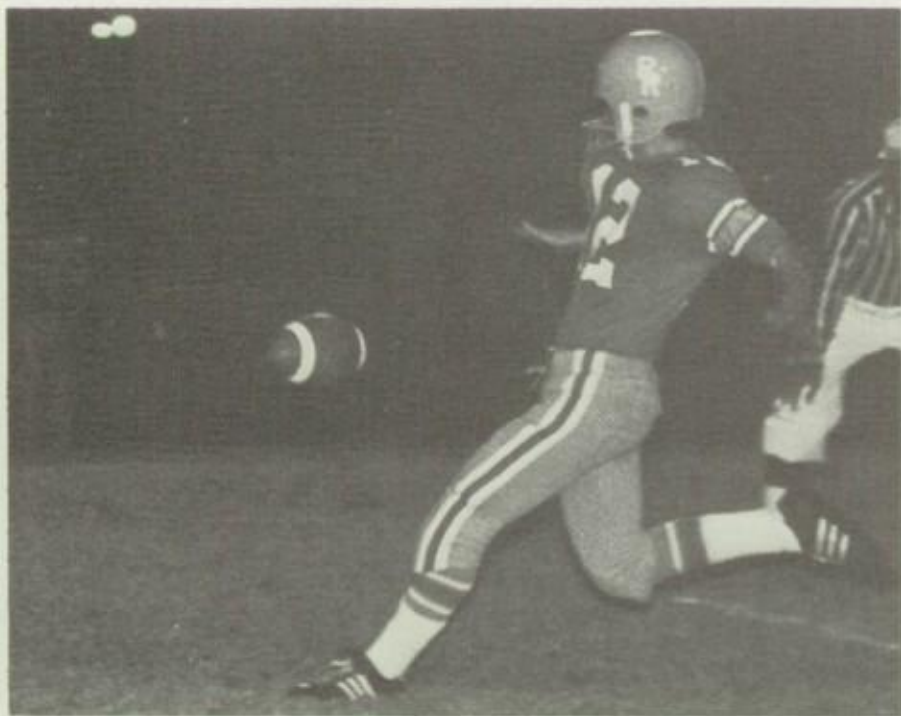

Harris tackled by defenders after a large gain against Pine Forest.

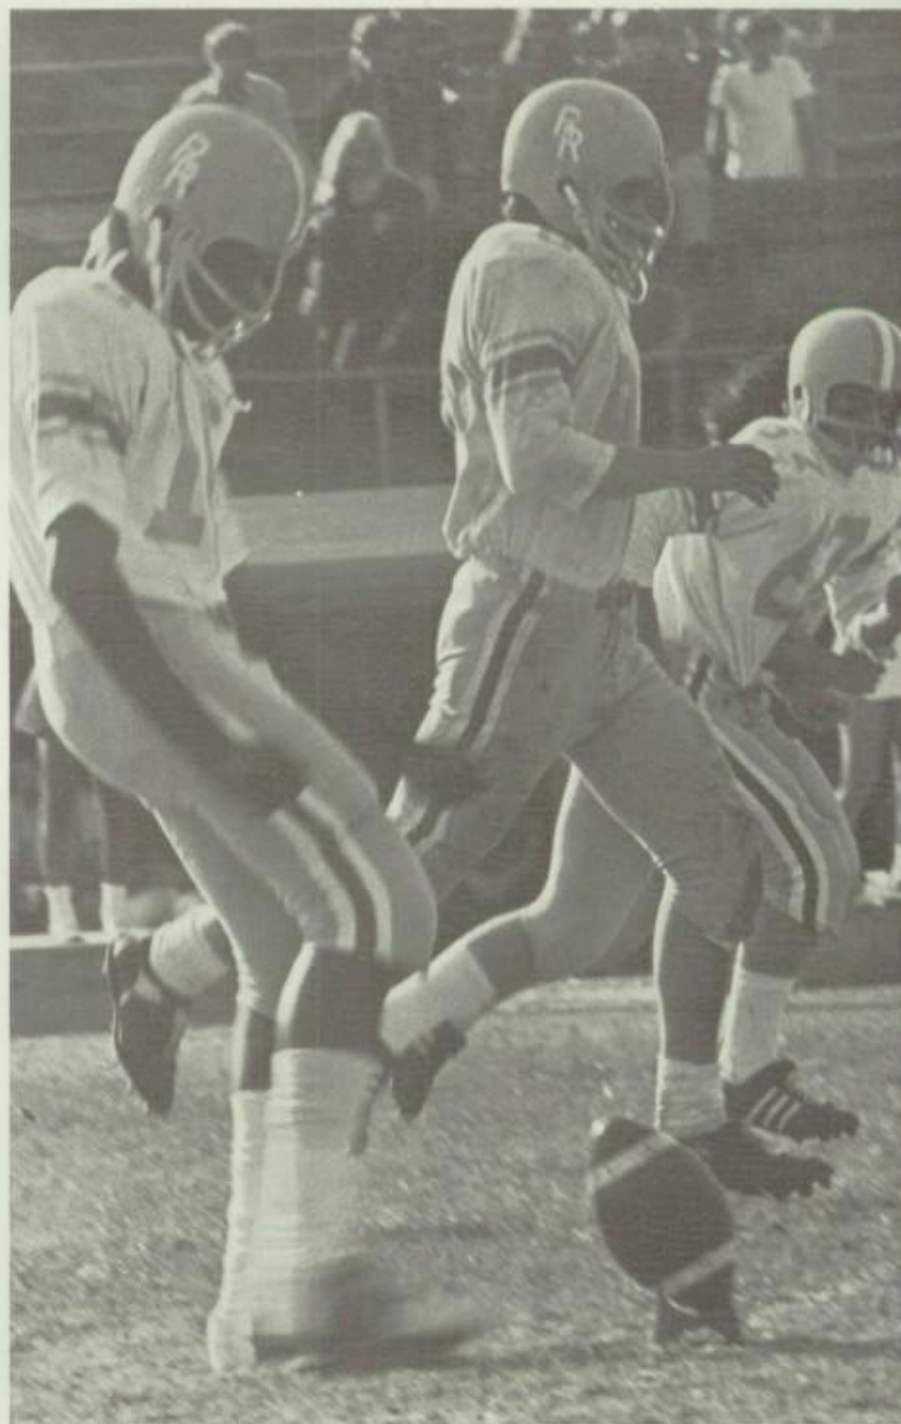

Billy Starks runs back one of his great punt returns. Starks was one of our tri-captains and made the All-City County team as a defensive back.

Billy Ivey booms a punt out of end-zone against E. E. Smith.

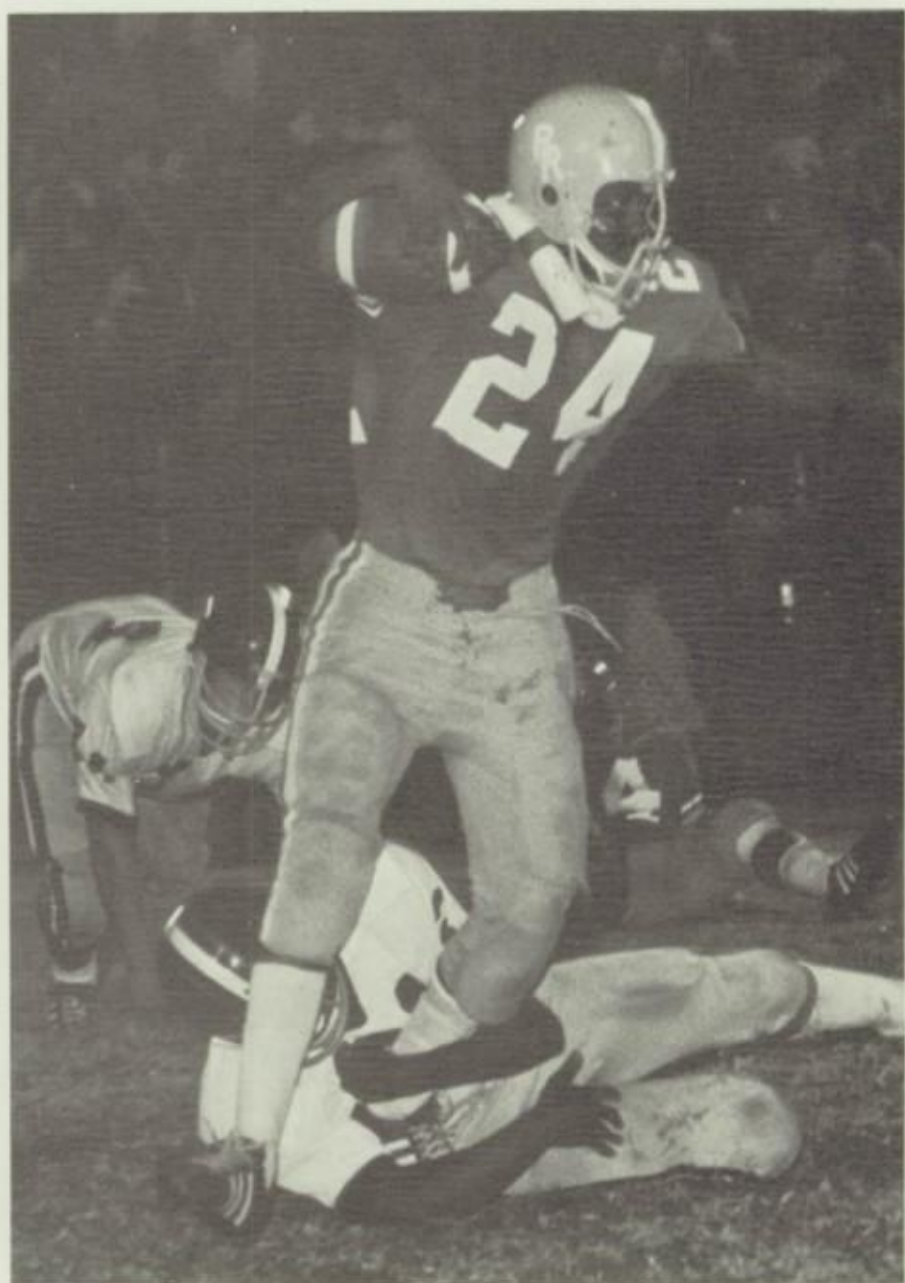

Tyrone Williams provided a key to Ross's great kicking game.

J. V. Football

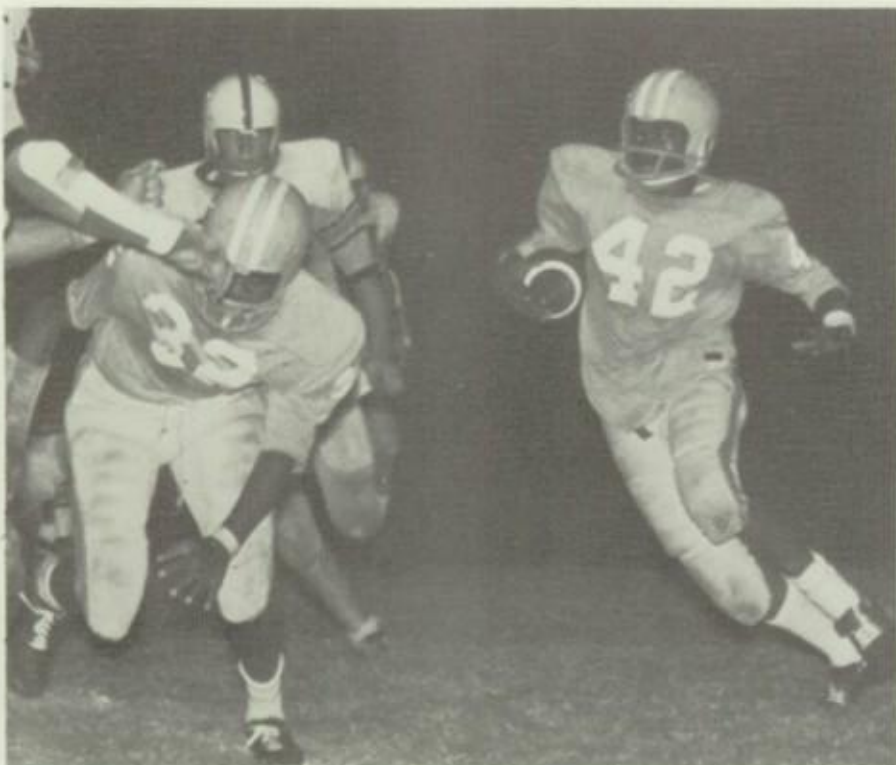

The J. V. Football team of 1971 completed a fine season with only one loss. Highlights of the season were the 76-0 and 44-0 victories over Massey Hill and Cape Fear. At the outset of the season the team faced many problems including a lack of experience, size and speed. Working hard thru-out the season Coach Woullard molded this group of young men into an efficient team of football players. Ross is again proud of its J. V. Football team.

The determined efforts of our basketball players produced few wins this year. It is at this time that the spirit of our students was most appreciated. With his endless energy and his personal devotion he has been a spark in everything we have accomplished. Miss RHS and the Jr.-Sr. during our Junior year would have been much the less without him. Now in our Senior year he is the driving force behind everything we've done. He has advised us, warned us, taught us, and helped us, but above everything else he has been a friend to us all. We now take this chance to simply say "Thank You" to

F A C U L T Y

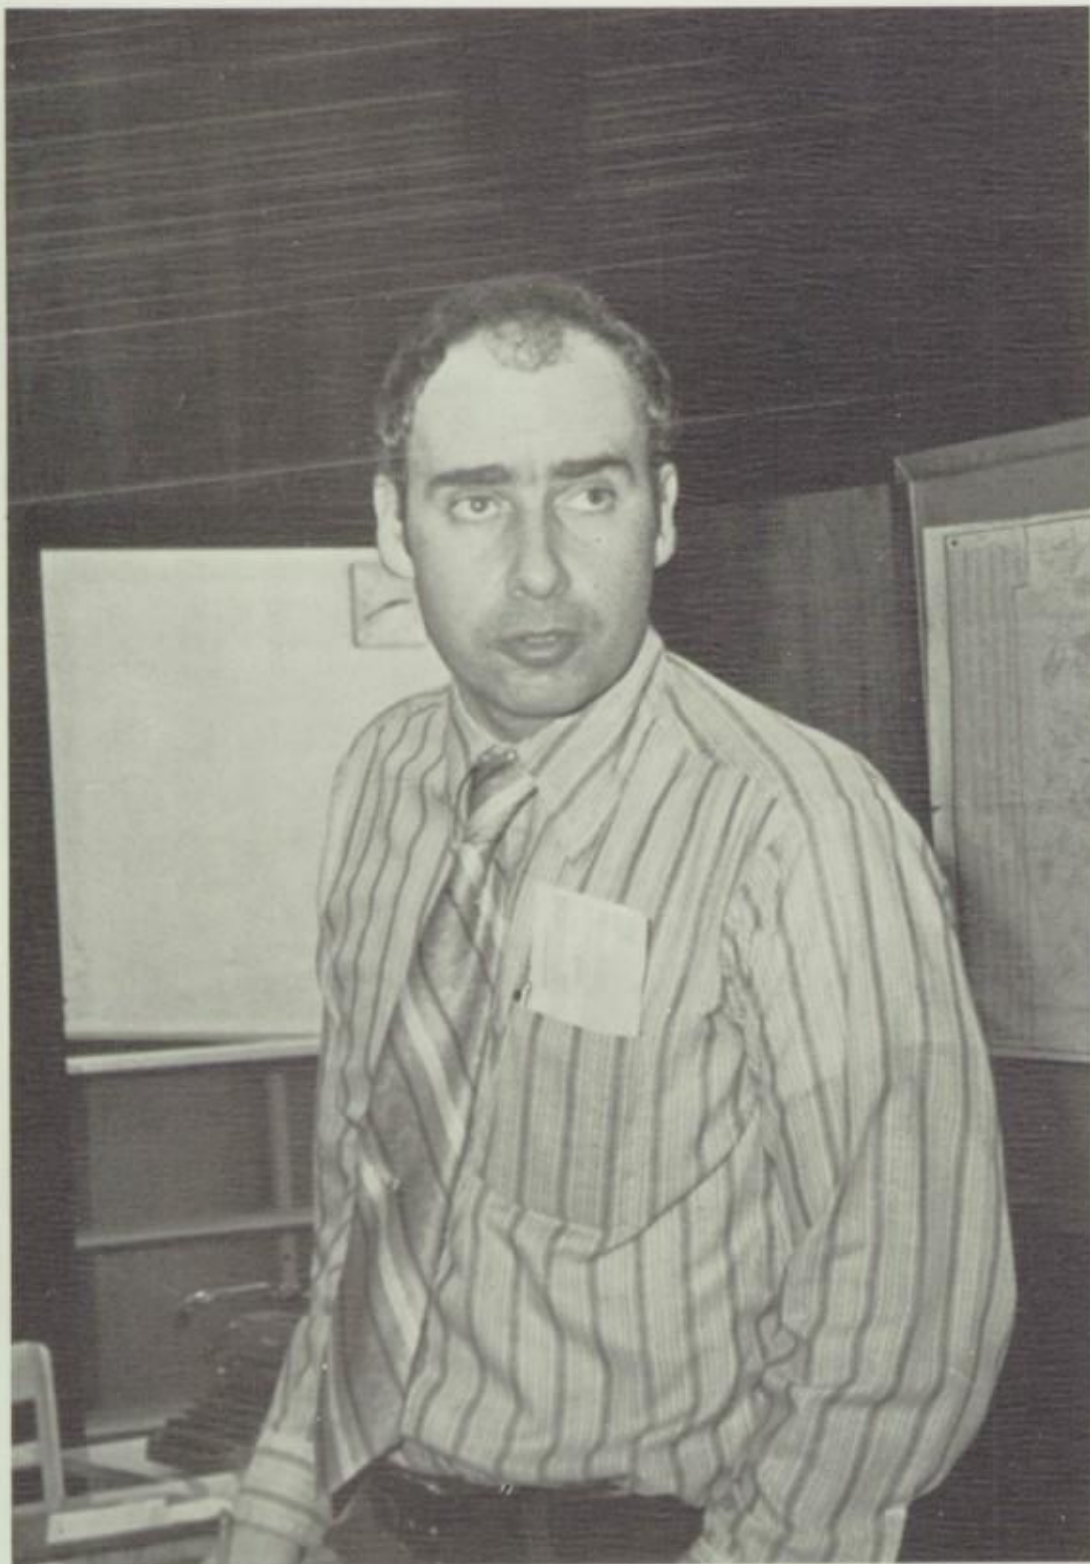

Mr. McGinley enjoys a football game with Mr. C. Reid Ross.

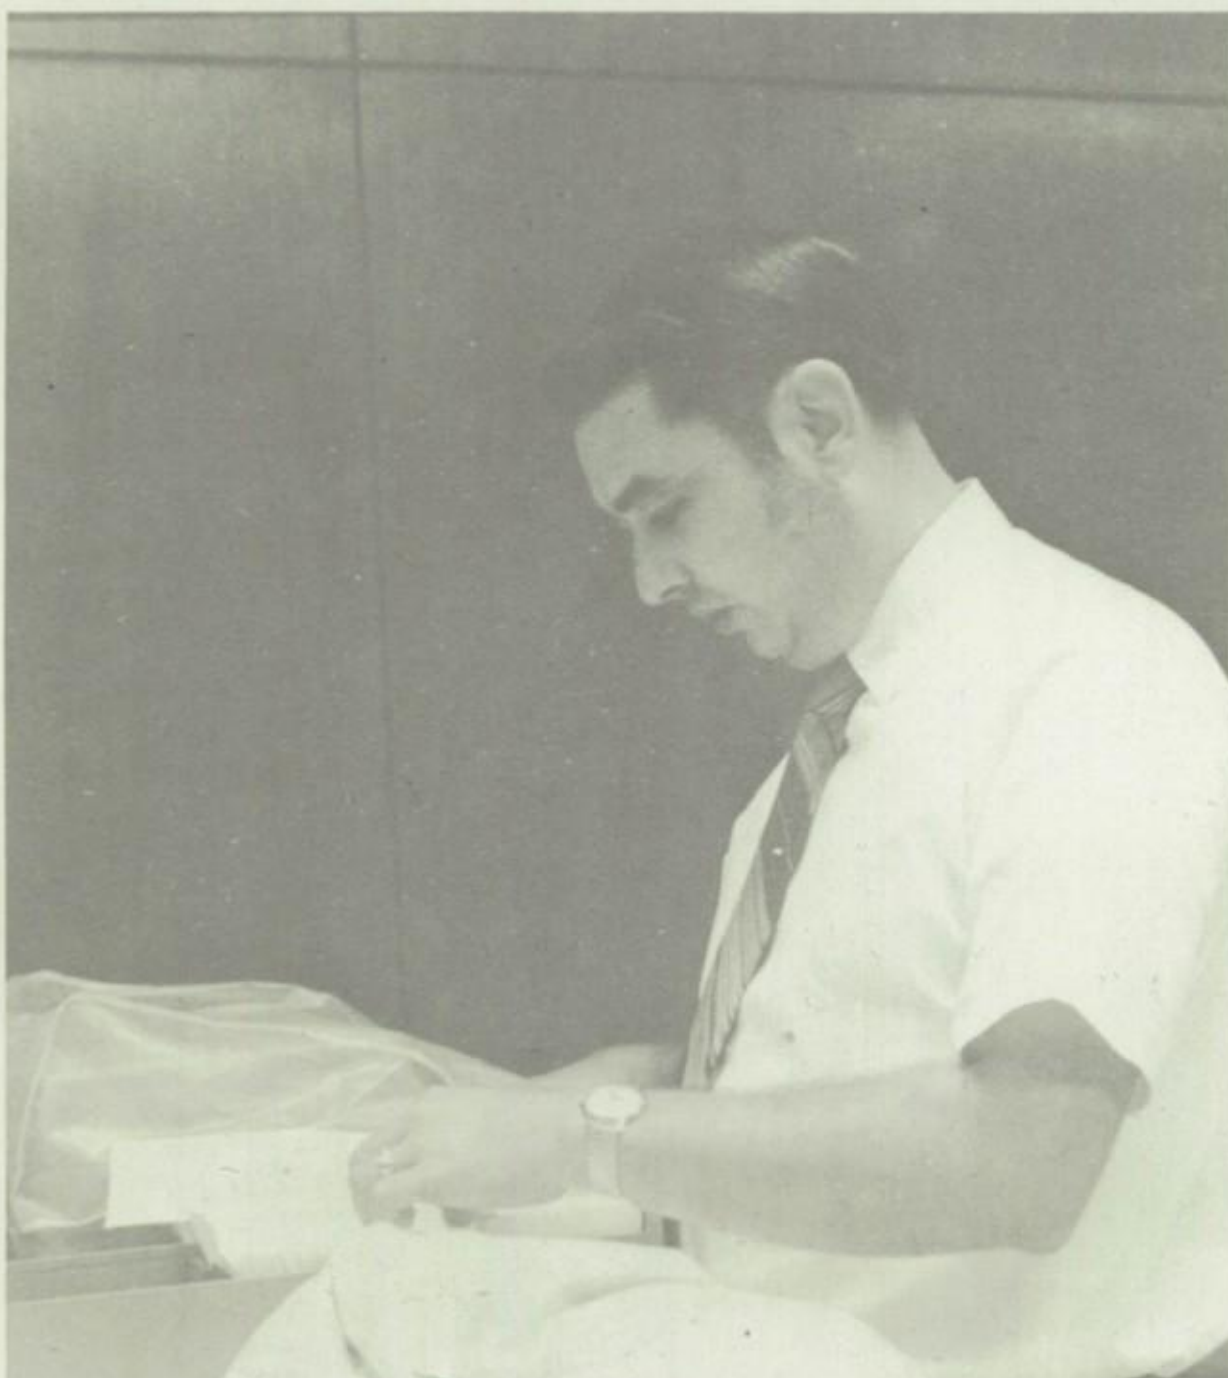

Principal Mr. McGinley

He is as the students say, "The man with the plan." There is an emotion of trust, respect, and friendliness about him that the students recognize. With the duty of looking over close to one thousand teenagers, he sees them as individuals seeking together an education and he does all he can to help them achieve it. We are truly proud of Mr. Jack McGinley.

Reflections of a day at Ross.

Mr. Landreth
Ass't Principal

Besides teaching one History class, our assistant principal has the responsibility of keeping the Detention Hall records. Mr. Landreth also manages the night school program offered at Ross. With these tasks, there is no doubt, he manages to keep very busy and puts forth all effort to see that our students have the best surrounding in which to achieve.
